EVERY GREAT ACHIEVEMENT BEGINS WITH A BOLD DECISION

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the Board of Directors, it is my privilege to welcome you to our 31st Annual General Meeting for the financial year ended 31st March 2025. Your presence here today is a testament to your trust in our leadership and shared aspiration for sustained growth.

The year gone by has been defined by both complexity and opportunity. As we navigated shifting global dynamics and market uncertainties, our team remained steadfast in purpose, executing a clear strategic vision and delivering progress across our key priorities.

I am pleased to report that despite external headwinds, we have made meaningful strides in bolstering operational capabilities, enhancing stakeholder value, and reinforcing our long-term resilience.

Performance Highlights: We are in the process of successfully implemented an Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) system, streamlining operations and enhancing traceability across departments. This digital transformation has helped standardize quality processes and improve operational efficiency, enabling faster decision-making and better customer service.

Our ongoing focus on quality has led to strategic investments in advanced equipment to support both production and inspection. These upgrades ensure greater precision, higher consistency, and improved reliability across our manufacturing processes.

We have also expanded our warehouse capacity. The new facility strengthens our logistics capabilities, enhances inventory management, and supports faster dispatches to customers across regions."

We are happy to announce On behalf of the Board of Directors, it is my privilege to welcome you to our 31st Annual General Meeting for the financial year ended 31st March 2025. Your presence here today is a testament to your trust in our leadership and shared aspiration for sustained growth. I am equally delighted to say that I have been fortunate enough to welcome you all since the first Annual General Meeting that was conducted in 1995.

The year gone by has been defined by both complexity and opportunity. As we navigated shifting global dynamics and market uncertainties, our team remained steadfast in purpose, executing a clear strategic vision and delivering progress across our key priorities.

I am pleased to report that despite external headwinds, we have made meaningful strides in bolstering operational capabilities, enhancing stakeholder value, and reinforcing our long-term resilience.

Performance Highlights: We are in the process of successfully implementing an Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) system, streamlining operations and enhancing traceability across departments. This digital transformation will help standardize quality processes and improve operational efficiency, enabling faster decision-making and better customer service. However, while doing all this, the company could not maintain the sales momentum of last year and had to be a contented with about a 6% decline in sales.

Our ongoing focus on quality has led to strategic investments in advanced equipment to support both production and inspection. These upgrades ensure greater precision, higher consistency, and improved reliability across our manufacturing processes.

We are in the process of expanding our warehouse capacity and construct a new warehouse which will be able to stock about 1 month of production in the warehouse(in terms of tonnage). The new facility will strengthen our logistics capabilities, enhance inventory management, and support faster dispatches to customers across regions thereby leading to lower wastages and better efficiency.

With NABL certification, our laboratory is now recognized for its ability to perform precise and reliable metallurgical testing. We are extending the scope to Dimensional testing also. This accreditation confirms that our testing processes meet the highest standards of accuracy, consistency, and reliability.

We are pleased to announce that, we were granted BIS certification mark license no 9512509218 in alignment with the Indian government's commitment to quality assurance. Our fasteners are now manufactured in accordance with the latest Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS) norms This step represents our dedication to delivering products that meet the highest industry standards.

We are excited to share that, following our successful efforts to build a strong reputation, we have intensified our focus on India's growth and are trying to make inroads into customers in the southern and western regions of India and not just the NCR area.

Focus on Skill Enhancement: We recognize that the strength of our company lies in the capabilities of our team. To this end, we have prioritized several initiatives aimed at upgrading and enhancing the skills of our workforce:

- Comprehensive Training Programs for Skill Upgradation: we have introduced structured career development paths and internal mobility programs to help employees grow within the organization. These efforts not only enhance individual potential but also foster a more agile, resilient, and innovation-driven culture across the company.
- Certification and Professional Development: We support our employees in pursuing relevant certifications and professional development opportunities. By encouraging and facilitating ongoing education, we ensure that our team members are recognized as experts in their fields and are well-prepared to tackle new challenges.
- Internal Knowledge Sharing, Mentorship and Coaching: We promote a culture of knowledge sharing within the organization. Regular seminars, internal workshops, and cross-departmental collaborations help in disseminating expertise and best practices, fostering a collaborative and learning-oriented environment.

By investing in the continuous development of our people, we are not only enhancing their individual capabilities but also strengthening our company's overall performance and innovation capacity. These skill enhancement initiatives are integral to our strategic vision and are expected to drive long-term success and sustainability.

- Investment in Zinc Plating plant: I am happy to report that our alkaline-based automatic Zinc Plating Plant, for which we had allocated ₹10 crore, has now become fully operational. This facility significantly boosts our surface treatment capabilities and ensures high-quality corrosion resistance for our products. The new plant reflects our commitment to technological advancement and product excellence.

Commitment toward environmental sustainability: In line with our commitment to environmental sustainability and compliance with pollution control regulations, we also invested in new generator sets in order to meet the standards set by GRAP. This upgrade was necessary to meet the standards set by the Haryana State Pollution Control Board (HSPCB) and to enhance our operational efficiency.

By executing these strategic investments, we are reinforcing our commitment to quality, compliance, and sustainability. These initiatives are integral to our expansion strategy, positioning us for continued growth and success in the competitive market landscape.

Navigating Risks with Resilience: The frequent raw material price increases and the ocean freight prices over the past few years affected the supply chains and steel price has reduced globally but remains volatile still. The Ocean freight pricing still is in a very volatile mode. However, our resilience and adaptive strategies have enabled us to mitigate these challenges effectively.

Looking Ahead: As we look to the future, we remain focused on as part of our long-term strategy to enhance sustainability and reduce operational costs, Mohindra Fasteners Limited is committed to integrating solar energy into our operations. Our vision for the future includes a substantial investment in solar power to align with our environmental goals and drive operational efficiency. Our commitment to customer satisfaction and sustainability will guide our efforts as we aim to deliver continued value to our shareholders and stakeholders.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to our employees, whose hard work and dedication are the backbone of our success. I also want to thank our management team for their leadership and strategic vision. I am thankful to you, our shareholders, for your unwavering trust and support.

In conclusion, we are optimistic about the opportunities that lie ahead and are confident in our ability to drive continued growth and success. We appreciate your continued confidence in our company and look forward to sharing our progress with you in the coming year.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Sd/-

1. COMPANY'S VISION

Our Company philosophy has always focused on customer satisfaction with uncompromising integrity. We strive to carry products and new developments with the finest value and quality in the market.

In order to meet our customer's expectations, we ensure that our sales team generates enthusiasm and respond with extra efforts in addressing our customer's needs.

2. COMPANY'S MISSION

- The Company will strive to achieve the following:
- To maintain the quality systems as per the international standards.
- To attain customer satisfaction.
- To target to reduce cost in all areas.
- To achieve operational efficiency in all its operations.
- To maximize the Shareholders' wealth.

3. REVIEW OF OPERATIONS (STANDALONE)

The financial statements have been prepared as per the IND-AS prescribed by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI).

During the financial year 2024-2025; your company has earned revenue from operations Rs. 16523.78 Lakhs (Previous year Rs. 17745.08 Lakhs) and net profit before tax of the company is Rs. 2003.03 Lakhs (Previous year Rs. 2168.41 Lakhs).

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE AND THE STATE OF THE COMPANY'S AFFAIRS'

Your Company sells in Domestic (Indian market) and Exports (Overseas markets). The Domestic sales contributed about 29% of the sales revenue and Exports contributed about 71% of the sales revenue.

Domestic sales primarily comprise the supply of high tensile fasteners to customers in the automotive sector. This includes direct sales to Hero MotoCorp Ltd in the two-wheeler segment, as well as supplies to several Tier 1 vendors associated with Maruti Suzuki, Hyundai, and Tata Motors Ltd. During the year, domestic sales stood at ₹4,520.33 lakhs, a slight decrease compared to ₹4,577.70 lakhs in the previous year.

The raw material price increases have shown stability largely during the year. It has followed a downward trend over the past few months. The supplies of the Raw material have remained largely in good shape.

Our Export sales for the year ended March 31, 2025 were substantially lower at ₹11,478.42 lakhs as against ₹12,545.68 lakhs in the previous year 2024. The Export sales were lower due to lower economic forecasts and subdued performance in the Western economies who have been reeling under high inflation rates and slowdown in their economies. The European markets have somehow not been able to recover from the economic stagnation owing to many factors like Ukraine/Russia war, poor business sentiment arising out of Tariffs narrative built up by the Trump administration ever since his victory was announced in November 2024. The hardline followed by Trump administration towards funding NATO and other international bodies, made the world think differently.

As far as exports are concerned, the above factors did contribute in some way or the other but with Tariffs now broadly decided, the countries are finding ways and means to beat them or to look at alternate avenues. The new government in Germany has committed to spend EUR 500 billion in infrastructure spending over the next 10 years and this should bring in more positive news for exporters like ourselves. The container availability & the freight rates did come down but with headwinds of inflation, Ukraine war, the Israel-Palestine conflict and the Houthi rebels making the situation in Red Sea more difficult than ever for container traffic movement leading to longer routes being adopted, the demand remained subdued. A dip witnessed in exports is a matter for concern for us but we have been seeing some positive order inflow and better news coming from the European markets this year. We expect the USA markets to remain quiet for some more months owing to the large Tariffs imposed by the Trump administration on India. A bigger concern coming is the reporting of Carbon emissions to the customers in Europe. This is likely to extend to UK and USA markets as well. This topic is likely to be active in the Indian markets as well as MACE(Maruti Centre for Excellence) works closely with the Indian automotive industry and its Tier suppliers in line with India's commitment to make India carbon neutral by 2070.

The government on its side is trying to make FTA's(Free Trade Agreements) with many countries to have a smooth two way trade for better opportunities. FTA with UK was concluded recently. FTA with EU and USA is under process.

Your company is looking to grow further in the domestic market to keep a healthy balance between Exports and Domestic sales. Sufficient steps are being taken in this direction. Your company has succeeded in getting the BIS certification. This will help us in looking after the requirements of the Industry better as the Indian industry was suffering on account of cheap imports from China and elsewhere with no guarantee of quality, reliability and after service. Your company has started to make sales in the after-market of Industrial segment on all India basis. We are expecting this segment to grow. We have brought in a lot of new developments in the company including new ERP implementation, adding quality enhancers, replacing old technology equipment with new one and building a new warehouse for stocking the products.

ECONOMIC ENVIRONMENT

The global economic outlook for 2025 remains fragile, marked by divergent growth trajectories, persistent policy uncertainty, and mounting risks of stagnation. According to the IMF's January 2025 World Economic Outlook, global growth is projected at 3.3% for both 2025 and 2026, unchanged from October 2024 forecasts. However, this aggregate figure masks significant regional disparities. Advanced economies like the United States are expected to grow at 2.7% in 2025, revised upward by 0.5% points due to robust consumption and investment. However, this might change due to the prevailing Tariff situation and expected inflation accompanying due to increased tariffs. In contrast, the Euro area faces a downgrade to 1.0% growth amid weak manufacturing and geopolitical tensions, while China's growth is marginally revised to 4.6% in 2025, constrained by property market drag and trade policy uncertainty. Emerging markets, particularly in Latin America and sub-Saharan Africa, show modest improvements but remain vulnerable to external shocks.

Inflation dynamics are uneven, with global headline inflation projected to decline to 4.2% in 2025, though services inflation remains sticky in advanced economies like the U.S. and Europe. Central banks face a delicate balancing act between maintaining restrictive policies where inflation persists, while cautiously easing in regions like Europe as price pressures recede. However, trade policy shocks and financial volatility threaten to disrupt disinflation progress. The IMF warns that escalating tariffs could pass through to consumer prices more sharply than in previous cycles, especially given elevated inflation expectations and tighter cyclical conditions.

The April 2025 IMF update underscores these challenges, highlighting a global growth forecast of 3.2% for 2025, marginally lower than earlier projections. Structural headwinds — such as aging populations, weak productivity, and geoeconomic fragmentation — are expected to cap medium-term growth at 3.1%, the lowest in decades. Regional divergences intensify: while the U.S. benefits from fiscal resilience and deregulation, Europe's stagnation persists, and China's slowdown weighs on emerging Asia. The World Bank and UNCTAD offer more pessimistic assessments, projecting global growth at 2.7% and 2.3%, respectively, citing trade disruptions, debt vulnerabilities, and climate risks. For instance, UNCTAD warns that reciprocal tariffs could shrink global trade growth by 0.5% points in 2025, disproportionately impacting developing economies.

Monetary and fiscal policy trade-offs complicate the outlook. The IMF emphasizes the need for advanced economies to rebuild fiscal buffers while supporting growth through structural reforms. In emerging markets, tighter financial conditions and dollar strength strain external balances, necessitating targeted interventions to stabilize currencies. Meanwhile, S&P Global notes rising input costs in manufacturing due to tariffs, with U.S. core goods inflation accelerating since late 2024. Despite these pressures, services inflation shows signs of moderation, offering some relief.

Looking ahead, downside risks dominate. Escalating trade tensions, geopolitical conflicts, and climate related shocks could further destabilize growth. The IMF stresses that multilateral cooperation is critical to mitigating fragmentation, particularly in restoring WTO dispute mechanisms and fostering resilient supply chains. However, with policy uncertainty at historic highs and medium-term growth prospects dimming, the global economy remains on a precarious path, requiring coordinated action to avoid prolonged stagnation.

The economic growth remained robust, outpacing forecasts and side-stepping concerns of stagflation and a global recession. This economic vitality, contrary to the anticipated impact of significant central bank rate hikes aimed at stabilising prices, was supported by stable employment and income growth. Key drivers included higher-than-expected government spending and household consumption, bolstered by an unexpected surge in labour force participation. Additionally, households in major advanced economies utilised substantial savings accumulated during the pandemic, mitigating the immediate effects of rising policy rates, which were further tempered by shifts in mortgage and housing markets from the era of low interest rates.

Global growth is projected to fall from an estimated 3.5 percent in 2022 to 3.0 percent in both 2023 and 2024. The rise in central bank policy rates to fight inflation continues to weigh on economic activity. Global headline inflation is expected to fall from 8.7 percent in 2022 to 6.8 percent in 2023 and 5.2 percent in 2024 and further to 4.5% in 2025. This positive trend towards stabilization is encouraging, as central banks are likely to shift towards more accommodative monetary policies.

The medium-term global growth projection stabilizes at 3.1%, reflecting cautious optimism amidst enduring economic disparities that may slow the pace of improvement in living standards, particularly in middle- and lower-income countries. This outlook, while cautious, recognizes the resilience and adaptability of global economies facing structural challenges. The growth trajectory, albeit modest, continues to offer opportunities for progress and innovation, particularly as economies adapt to more sustainable and efficient practices.

Despite the challenges, the global economic landscape remains a fertile ground for strategic adaptation and long-term resilience. The relatively steady growth prospects underscore the importance of continued innovation and strategic planning to overcome structural impediments and enhance capital and labour allocation. As we move forward, the focus on fostering a dynamic and inclusive global economy will remain paramount, underscoring our commitment to driving sustainable growth and prosperity.

INDIAN ECONOMY

India's economic outlook for 2025, presents a picture of resilient and broad-based growth amid global uncertainties and evolving domestic challenges. Real GDP growth for FY25 is estimated at 6.4%, aligning closely with the country's decadal average, and projections for FY26 range between 6.3-6.8%. This steady performance is underpinned by robust macroeconomic fundamentals, a rebound in rural demand, and the government's sustained focus on capital expenditure and infrastructure development.

As per the Department of Economic Affairs, the private consumption expenditure is expected to grow by 7.3% in FY25, largely driven by a revival in rural demand following improved agricultural output. The agriculture sector is projected to expand by 3.8%, supported by record kharif foodgrain production and favorable monsoon conditions. The industrial sector is estimated to grow by 6.2%, with construction, electricity, and utilities providing strong support despite some moderation due to global trade headwinds. The services sector remains a key pillar, forecast to grow by 7.2%, fueled by robust activity in finance, real estate, public administration, and particularly strong growth in services exports, which surged by 12.8% during April November FY25

Government capital expenditure continues to be a central growth driver. India's fiscal position remains stable, with a focus on adhering to the fiscal consolidation roadmap and targeting a fiscal deficit of 4.5% of GDP by FY26. Gross FDI inflows revived strongly, increasing by 17.9% in the first eight months of FY25 compared to the previous year, signaling renewed investor confidence. India's foreign exchange reserves, though moderating from their September 2024 peak, remain robust at over $634 billion, sufficient to cover nearly 11 months of imports and 90% of external debt, thus safeguarding against external shocks.

The headwinds have emerged due to higher tariffs imposed by USA on India in August 2025 leading to US based importers putting orders/shipments on hold. The Indian government is doing back-room diplomacy and trying to strengthen BRICS and the bonhomie between the Indian and Chinese governments could have far reaching implications for not just both the countries but also for the world. With Russia, siding with India and China and both the nations criticizing USA for the tariffs in India, the world will witness a new power political game in times to come.

Despite these strengths, the outlook is tempered by notable risks. Global trade and geopolitical uncertainties, potential commodity price shocks, and subdued private capital expenditure remain key concerns. The Economic Survey emphasizes the need for systematic deregulation and grassroots-level reforms to enhance India's global competitiveness and unlock the potential of the MSME sector. Continued infrastructure investment, particularly in renewable energy and logistics, is identified as critical for sustaining high growth over the next two decades.

In summary, while the global and domestic economic environments present multifaceted challenges, they also offer significant opportunities for strategic growth and innovation. The Indian economy, with its demonstrated resilience and adaptive strategies, is well-positioned to not only navigate these challenges but also capitalize on emerging trends to secure long-term sustainable growth.

INDUSTRIAL STRUCTURE AND DEVELOPMENT

India remains one of the fastest-growing major economies, with the GDP estimated to grow by 6.5% in 2024-25 and projected to grow at the same rate in 2025-26. The growth is driven primarily by the services and agriculture sectors, as improvement in agricultural output has boosted rural demand. A weak global demand has put pressure on the manufacturing industry.

However, consistent domestic demand has led to stability in private consumption. With a GDP exceeding USD 4 trillion, India is the fifth-largest economy globally and is on track to become the fourth-largest by 2025-26. The budget for 2025-26 emphasizes four key development areas—agriculture, micro, small, and medium enterprises (MSMEs), investments, and exports—as catalysts for growth. Significant funding is allocated for infrastructure development, including ₹ 1.5 lakh crore in interest-free loans to States for major projects. The output of coal, fertilizer, steel, and cement has increased, propelling the expansion of the eight core sectors, which account for 40% of the Index of Industrial output. Retail inflation has softened from 5.4% in 2023-24 to 4.6% in 2024-25. With inflation at its lowest since 2018–19, an enabling environment has been created for sustainable growth. This trajectory underscores resilience and commitment to ensuring price stability without compromising development goals. Improved expenditure management and tax revenue have enabled the Government to control the fiscal deficit. The consumption trend remains strong, as GST collections exceeded 22.08 trillion for the year.

During the year, INR depreciated and closed at 85.47 against the USD, declining from 83.40 on March 31, 2024. The GDP, which was initially forecasted to grow at 7.0%, moderated to 6.5% due to extreme weather conditions, lengthy general elections, elevated food inflation, and rear-ended infrastructure spending. In addition, higher FDI repatriation and equity outflows by Foreign Institutional Investors also caused the INR to decline.

A good monsoon helped the nation recover from the near drought caused by El Nino. It replenished water farms and reservoirs, increasing rural income, boosting consumption, and fueling general economic growth.

The Companies engaged in the manufacturing of fasteners require significant capital investment owing to the high production volumes and stringent specifications concerning testing and labeling. Industrial fasteners such as bolts, screws, nuts, studs, and rivets are manufactured and distributed by different participants. Companies invest significantly in R&D activities, thus resulting in dynamic market conditions.

India's economy has registered a stellar performance, with an average annual real GDP growth rate of 8% over the past three fiscal years (FY 2021-22 to FY 2023-24). For FY 2024-25, real growth is projected at 6.5%, reflecting a moderation from the previous year's 9.2%. Despite this slowdown, India remains the fastest-growing major economy globally. The economy's nominal GDP is estimated at approximately USD 3.9–4.2 trillion, keeping India among the world's top five economies, with forecasts indicating it will become the fourth-largest by FY 2025-26. The Government has continuously increased the allocation for infrastructure development in the last three years creating a multiplier effect on the economy. The eight core sectors which have a weightage of 40% in the Index of Industrial Production have grown by 7.5%, though the weakness in external demand has impacted a few export-oriented sectors. The economy's growth has been aided by stability in the macroeconomic fundamentals. The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has kept inflation within its target range of 4% to 6% through a prudent monetary policy. The calibrated increase in policy rates under the liquidity adjustment facility has ensured that inflation is aligned to the target. The crude oil prices have remained relatively stable during the fiscal keeping the inflation under control. Better expenditure control and the tax buoyancy have helped the Government to rein in the fiscal deficit. The Indian Rupee has remained range-bound throughout the year and closed at 83.40 against the USD, compared to 82.17 levels on March 31, 2024. The RBI has also built up sizable foreign currency reserves, which has given a cushion against currency volatility arising from political or economic incidents. FDI inflows and FII investments have also bolstered India's foreign exchange reserves. With other major economies slowing down, India has become a favorable destination for global investors. India experienced a deficiency in the monsoons due to the impact of El Nino. This resulted in erratic and uneven rainfall distribution, causing significant deficits in some regions and surpluses in others. The monsoon impact has affected the agricultural sector, rural purchasing power and sentiments. The Passenger Vehicles (PV) segment recorded its highest-ever sales at 4.3 million units, with a growth of 2% over 2023-24. The modest growth can be attributed to the high base effect. • Sports Utility Vehicles (SUVs), which accounted for 65% of all PV sales, saw double-digit growth. The trend will likely continue, with multiple new SUV models scheduled for release in the upcoming year. • The PV sales also reported its highest-ever exports of 0.77 million units in 2024-25, registering a growth of 14.6% over 2023-24. New model launches with modern designs rich in features and supported with attractive discounts and promotions sustained the growth momentum. Electric vehicle (EV) sales continue to gain traction, with new EV launches by several manufacturers providing the impetus for the growth of this segment. The EV registrations have scaled 1 lakh units, registering an impressive increase of 18.2%. The Commercial Vehicles (CV) segment has registered a decline of (1.20%) in sales during the financial year 2024-25. Rural demand was affected by a below-par monsoon, and the urban demand has been driven by manufacturing momentum and fleet expansion of logistics players. The bus segment registered a good growth owing to the mandatory scrappage policy for Government vehicles, which drove the replacement demand. The tractor industry had a modest decline of (1.04%) compared to the previous year. The first quarter showed weakness, but the segment began to recover in September 2024 leading to strong growth during the festive season in October and November. The penetration of EVs in the two-wheeler segment increased to about 6% in 2024-25.

OPPORTUNITIES

Looking ahead, the Indian fasteners market is expected to maintain a positive momentum, supported by the government's continued investment in manufacturing, infrastructure, and exports. India's increasing attractiveness as a global manufacturing hub positions it well to benefit from shifts in global trade dynamics. Technological advancements such as smart fasteners, additive manufacturing, and IoT-enabled production systems are beginning to reshape the product landscape, creating opportunities for manufacturers to move up the value chain. The increasing preference for sustainable and recyclable materials is also influencing product innovation, prompting the industry to invest in R&D and environmentally friendly manufacturing practices. With the government promoting the growth of MSMEs and encouraging import substitution, the domestic industry is well-placed to grow in both volume and value terms.

THREATS

- The threat of being wiped out by cheap Chinese imports in a lot of low end product categories. With the Indian government opening up trade routes with China, the larger impact will have to be studied.
- Threat due to the recent upsurge in geo-political factors like the Israel-Palestinian war, Ukraine-Russia war which may have an adverse impact on global economic development. This might put the supply chain at a serious threat leading to a drop in volumes.

- Threat due to situation of freight/container movement in Red Sea affecting the availability of container units.
- Threat of new small/medium and large entrants in the market leading to higher competition.
- Threat of substitutes or counterfeit fastener items.
- Threat arising out of high tariffs imposed by USA
- Increasing use of novel threaded & plastic fasteners and rising demand of light weighting in the automotive fasteners.
- Poor availability of skilled labour and technology innovations is one of the threats which exist in the Indian Fastener sector.
- The Price increase/decrease in fasteners' raw material.
- Spurious and low quality fastener affects longevity adversely, and may result in accidents with catastrophic consequences.
- Increased congestion in urban areas is one of the main reasons which create hindrance in growth of Automotive Sector.
- Changes in regulatory requirements.
- Growing competition at domestic as well as overseas market.
- Geopolitical changes in respect to global tariffs being imposed.
- Emergence of 3D printing (additive manufacturing) as an alternative to low volume fasteners.
- The emergence of EV segment over the traditional combustion engines segment is expected to alter demand matrix and reduce consumption.

CHALLENGES

The Indian economy, however, appears to have moved on after its encounter with the pandemic, staging a full recovery in FY23 ahead of many nations and positioning itself to ascend to the pre-pandemic growth path in FY24. Yet in the current year, India has also faced the challenge of reining in inflation that the European strife accentuated. The slow pace in containing the CAD (Current Account Deficit) may also continue as global commodity prices remain elevated and the growth momentum of the Indian economy remains strong. The loss of export stimulus is further possible as the slowing world growth and trade shrinks the global market size in the second half of the current year.

India's GDP is estimated to grow at 7% in 2025-26 and at 6% in 2024-25. Despite the global slowdown, India's economic growth rate is stronger than in many peer economies in BRICS/other developing countries and reflects relatively strong domestic consumption and lesser dependence on global demand.

As far as exports are concerned, the container availability & the freight rates did improve briefly but have been challenged again on account of Israel- Palestine situations and Houthi problems in the Red Sea is bringing down the overall exports.. The world has suffered a lot during the pandemic and the supply chains worldwide are looking at opportunities outside of the far eastern countries of China for understandable reasons and also Taiwan due to China's hostile policies. This is likely to help India's quest to be a bigger and worthy supplier of may engineering and electronics items including Fasteners.

The frequent raw material price increases over the past few years affected the material flow both for the vehicle manufacturers and the component makers. The steel price has reduced globally but remains volatile still with the producers indulging in cartelization and resorting to production cuts to control pricing.

STRENGTHS

- Company has been adding new customers, new product lines and developed medium to long term contracts for special products and applications, despite the slowdown.
- Combination of hot and cold forging under one roof.
- Turning, Milling, Grinding and Drilling in the same premises.
- More than 50% of Tonnage is exported.
- Entering & exploring into the new markets.
- Experience and highly skilled workforce.
- Well diversified portfolio.

MOHINDRA FASTENERS LIMITED

- Quality & process certifications add credibility.
- Focus on specials and value added parts
- Focus on making the manufacturing operations lean and to be able to compete internationally.
- Adding more Quality facilitators/enhancers into the production system to focus on product quality.
- MFL is BIS approved, the market is expected to support BIS approved manufacturers.

SEGMENT-WISE OR PRODUCT-WISE PERFORMANCE

The Company is in the business of manufacture of high tensile fasteners. Since the Company is operating in a single line of product, there are no reportable primary segments. The performance of this product is covered in 'Review of Operations' which forms part of Directors' Report.

OUTLOOK

Mohindra Fasteners Limited is poised for a dynamic future, driven by our strategic initiatives and a clear focus on market expansion and product innovation. Our strategy revolves around three core pillars: enhancing manufacturing capabilities, deepening market penetration, and prioritizing sustainability

Although global projections of economic growth for CY 2025 loom on uncertainties, India on the other hand is expected to outperform. As per IMF, Indian economy is projected to grow at 7.00% in FY 2026 after having grown at an estimated 6.8% in FY 2025, to be among the fastest growing major economies. It further projects India and China to contribute to half the global growth in CY2024. India's economic growth will be driven by robust domestic demand supported by the government's continued thrust on infrastructure spending.

However, external challenges of global economic slowdown, geo-political scenario and energy price uncertainties may keep the Indian economy vigilant.

With growing market demand, the Company continues to enhance its foray in a dynamic industry. It is consistently improving production volumes and fulfilling short as well as long-term targets.

Your company is looking to grow further in the domestic market to keep a healthy balance between Exports and Domestic sales. Sufficient steps are being taken in this direction. Our company is focusing on cost reduction measures as well as to improve processes to enhance customer satisfaction which will have a long-term impact in helping your company to achieve its goals and scale new heights in the growth path. The Management looks the future with optimism and hopes to do better in times to come.

Appointment and Nomination and Remuneration Policy for Directors, key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management

Remuneration policy of the Company is designed to create a high-performance culture. It enables the Company to attract, retain and motivate employees to achieve results. Our business model promotes customer centricity and requires employee mobility to address project needs. The remuneration policy supports such mobility through pay models that are compliant to local regulations.

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee (“NRC”) has adopted a policy which, inter alia, deals with the manner of selection of Board of Directors, Managing Director/Executive Director, other Key Managerial Personnel and their remuneration. The Nomination and Remuneration Policy can be accessed on the Company’s website at www.mohindra.asia.

Performance Evaluation Criteria for IDs

- The Nomination and Remuneration Committee lays down the criteria for performance evaluation of independent directors, Board of Directors and Committees of the Board of Directors. The criteria for performance evaluation encompass the following areas relevant to their functioning as independent directors, member of Board or Committees of the Board.
- Attendance to the Board and Committee meetings, and active participation thereof.
- Flow of information to the Board.
- Experience and competencies, performance of specific duties and obligations.
- How their performance is reflected in the overall engagement of the Board and its Committees with the Company, etc.

THE KEY PRINCIPLES GOVERNING THE COMPANY’S REMUNERATION POLICY ARE AS FOLLOWS:

Remuneration for Managing Directors (‘MD’)/ Executive Directors (‘ED’)/ key Managerial Personnel (‘KMP’)/ rest of the Employees:

The Company pays remuneration by way of salary, benefits, perquisites and allowances (fixed component) and commission (variable component) to its Managing Directors and the Executive Directors.

The Company provides to the employees a performance linked increment. The performance linked increment would be driven by the outcome of the performance appraisal process and the performance of the Company.

Remuneration for Non-Executive Non-Independent Directors and Independent Directors:

The Company pays sitting fees of Rs. 20,000 per meeting to its Non-Executive Directors for attending meetings of the Board.

The Company also reimburses the out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Directors for attending the meetings.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To The Members of Mohindra Fasteners Limited

Report on the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying Standalone financial statements of Mohindra Fasteners Limited, ("the Company"), which comprise the Standalone Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2025, and the Standalone Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), Standalone Statement of Changes in Equity and the Standalone Statement of Cash Flows for the Year then ended, and notes to the Standalone financial statements, including material accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the State of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2025, and its Profit and other comprehensive income, Changes in Equity and its Cash Flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Standalone financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the standalone financial statements.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Standalone financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Standalone financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matter described below to be the Key audit matter to be communicated in our report.

Independent Auditor's Report to the members of Mohindra Fasteners Limited on the Standalone Financial Statements for the year ended 31st March 2025 (Contd.)

Revenue recognition See Note No. 3(a) 30 & 52 to the standalone financial statements:

S.NO.	KEY AUDIT MATTERS	AUDITOR'S RESPONSE
1.	In accordance with principles of Ind As-115, Revenue from sale of goods is recognized when control of the products being sold is transferred to the customer and when there are no longer any unfulfilled obligations. The performance obligations in the contracts are fulfilled at the time of dispatch, delivery or upon formal customer acceptance depending on customer terms	Our audit procedures for testing revenue recognition included, but were not limited to the following: • We assessed the appropriateness of the revenue recognition accounting policies, including those relating to rebates and discounts by comparing with applicable Ind As -115. • We tested the design, implementation and operating effectiveness of management's general IT controls and key application controls over the Company's IT systems which govern revenue recognition, including access controls, controls over program changes, interfaces between different systems and key manual internal controls over revenue recognition to assess the completeness of a sample of transactions. • We perform substantive testing by selecting samples of revenue transactions recorded during the year by verifying the underlying documents, which included customer purchase order, invoices, goods dispatch notes and shipping documents. • We inspected, on a sample basis, key customer contracts to identify terms and conditions relating to goods acceptance and rebates and assessing the Company's revenue recognition policies with reference to the requirements of the applicable accounting standards. • We performed cut off testing for samples of revenue transactions recorded before and after the financial year end date by comparing with relevant underlying documentation, which included goods dispatch notes and shipping documents, to assess whether the revenue was recognized in the current period.

Independent Auditor's Report to the members of Mohindra Fasteners Limited on the Standalone Financial Statements for the year ended 31st March 2025 (Contd.)

Provision for taxation, litigation and other significant provisions

See Note No. 3(i),3(n), 28, 29, and 38 to standalone the financial Statements:

S.NO.	KEY AUDIT MATTERS	AUDITOR'S RESPONSE
2.	Determination of tax Provisions and other contingencies requires the Management to make judgments and estimates in relation to the issues and exposures arising from a range of matters relating to direct tax, indirect tax, claims, general legal proceedings, environmental issues and other eventualities arising in the regular course of business. The key judgement lies in the estimation of provisions where they may differ from the future obligations. By nature, provision is difficult to estimate and includes many variables. Additionally, depending on timing, there is a risk that costs could be provided inappropriately that are not yet committed.	Our audit procedures included but were not limited to the following: • We tested the effectiveness of controls around the recognition of provisions. • We used subject matter experts to assess the value of material provisions in light of the nature of the exposures, applicable regulations and related correspondence with the authorities. • We challenged the assumptions and critical judgments made by management which impacted their estimate of the provisions required, considering judgments previously made by the authorities in the relevant jurisdictions or any relevant opinions given by the Company's advisors and assessing whether there was an indication of management bias. • We discussed the status in respect of significant provisions with the Company's internal tax and legal team. • We performed retrospective review of management judgements relating to accounting estimate included in the financial statement of prior year and compared with the outcome.

Independent Auditor's Report to the members of Mohindra Fasteners Limited on the Standalone Financial Statements for the year ended 31st March 2025 (Contd.)

Information other than the Standalone Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the Standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the Annual Report, If we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance and take necessary actions, as applicable under the relevant laws and regulations.

Managements and Board of director's Responsibility for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and Cash Flows of the Company in accordance the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting the frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Standalone financial statements, the management and the Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the board of directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

Independent Auditor's Report to the members of Mohindra Fasteners Limited on the Standalone Financial Statements for the year ended 31st March 2025 (Contd.)

As part of an audit in accordance with Standard on Auditing (Sas), we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures in the financial statement made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of Board of director's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matter communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Report on other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

- II. (a) The inventory, except stocks lying with third parties, has been physically verified by the management during the year. For stocks lying with third parties at the year-end, written confirmations have been obtained In our opinion, the frequency of such verification is reasonable and procedures and coverage as followed by management were appropriate. No discrepancies were noticed on verification between the physical stocks and the book records that were more than 10% in the aggregate of each class of inventory.
- (b) The company has been sanctioned working capital limits in excess of Twenty - Five crore rupees, in aggregate, from banks or financial institutions on the basis of security of current assets; In our opinion, there are no material discrepancies between the quarterly returns or statements filed by the company with such banks or financial institutions are in agreement with the books of account of the Company.
- III. The company has not made any investments in, provided any guarantee or security or granted any loans or advances in the nature of loans, secured or unsecured, to companies, firms, Limited Liability Partnerships or any other parties during the year. Accordingly, the Provision of clause 3(iii) (a) to 3(iii) (f) of the order are not applicable to the company.
- IV. The Company has complied with the provisions of section 186 in respect of investments. Further, in our opinion, the company has not entered into any transaction covered under section 185 and section 186 of the Act in respect of loans, guarantees and security.
- V. The Company has not accepted any deposits or amounts which are deemed to be deposits from the public within the meaning of the directives issued by the Reserve Bank of India, provisions of section 73 to 76 of the Companies Act, 2013; any other relevant provisions of the Act and relevant rules framed thereunder. Accordingly, the Provision of clause 3(v) of the order are not applicable to the company.
- VI. We have broadly reviewed the books of account maintained by the company pursuant to the rules made by the Central Government under section 148(1) of the Companies Act, 2013 for maintenance of cost records and are of the opinion that prima-facie, the prescribed accounts and records have been made and maintained. We have, however, not made a detailed examination of the cost records with a view to determine whether they are accurate or complete.

Annexure-"B" to the Independent Auditor's Report of even date to the members of Mohindra Fasteners Limited on the standalone financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2025 (Contd.)

Independent Auditor's Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to standalone Financial statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Mohindra Fasteners Limited, Delhi ("the Company") as of March 31, 2025 in conjunction with our audit of the Standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Managements and Board of Director's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (hereinafter "ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls, and both issued by ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statement.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A Company's internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of standalone financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Company's internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements includes those policies and procedures that;

Annexure-"B" to the Independent Auditor's Report on the standalone financial statements of Mohindra Fasteners Limited for the year ended 31st March 2025 (Contd.)

(Referred to in paragraph 3 (g) under 'report on other legal and regulatory requirements' section of our report of even date)

- I. pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company;
- II. provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of standalone financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Company; and
- III. Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the standalone financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to over Standalone financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls with reference to these Standalone financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to these Standalone financial statements were operating effectively as at March 31, 2025, based on the internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

1. Corporate and General Information

Mohindra Fasteners Limited ("MFL" or "the Company") was incorporated on 10th January, 1995 under the erstwhile companies Act, 1956 and is domiciled in India (CIN: L74899DL1995PLC064215). The Equity shares of the company is listed in the Metropolitan Stock Exchange of India Limited ('MSEI') and not publicly traded.

The registered office of the Company is situated at 304, Gupta Arcade, Inder Enclave, Delhi-Rohtak Road, Jwala Puri, West Delhi, New Delhi-110087, INDIA. The company is engaged in the Manufacturing and sale of High Tensile Fasteners.

2. Basis of Preparation

a) Statement of Compliance

These standalone financial statements are prepared on accrual basis of accounting and comply with the Indian Accounting standards ('Ind AS') as notified by the Ministry of corporate affairs under section 133 of Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act') read with the companies (Indian Accounting standards) Rules, 2015 and subsequent amendments thereto, and other provisions of the Act (to the extent notified and applicable).

The financial statements for the year ended 31st March 2025 (including comparatives) are duly approved and authorized for issue by the Board of directors at their board meeting held on 24th May, 2025.

b) Overall considerations

The financial statements have been prepared on going concern basis applying the significant accounting policies and measurement bases summarized below. These accounting policies have been used throughout all periods presented in the standalone financial statements, unless otherwise stated.

c) Basis of measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for the following items:

Items	Measurement basis
Certain financial assets and liabilities	Fair Value
Net defined benefit (assets)/liability	Fair value of planned assets less present value of defined benefit obligations

The methods used to measure fair values are discussed further in notes to financial statements.

d) Functional and presentation currency

These financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (Rs.), which is also the company's functional currency. All financial information presented in Indian Rupees has been rounded to the nearest Lakh (up to two decimals), except as stated otherwise.

e) Current and non-current classification

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current and non-current as per the Company's normal operating cycle. Based on the nature of services rendered to customers and time elapsed between deployment of resources and the realization in cash and cash equivalents of the consideration for such services rendered, the Company has considered an operating cycle of 12 months.

f) Measurement of fair values

A number of the Company's accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair values. In determining the fair value of its financial instruments, the Company uses a variety of methods and assumptions that are based on market conditions and risks existing at each reporting date. The Chief Financial Officer and persons entrusted have overall responsibility for overseeing all significant fair value measurements, including Level 1 fair values and assessments that these valuations meet the requirements of Ind AS. The methods used to determine fair value include discounted cash flow analysis, available quoted market prices and dealer quotes. All methods of assessing fair value result in general approximation of value, and such value may never actually be realized.

Fair values are categorized into different levels in a fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used in the valuation techniques.

(All amounts are in Lakh of Indian Rupees, unless otherwise stated)

The Company recognizes transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy at the end of the reporting period during which the change has occurred. Further information about the assumptions made in measuring fair values (Refer Note-46 of the Standalone Financial statements).

3. Summary of Material accounting policies

a) Revenue Recognition

Revenue is measured based on the consideration specified in a contract with a customer. A performance obligation is a promise in a contract to transfer a distinct good (or a bundle of goods) to the customer and is the unit of account in Ind AS 115. A contract's transaction price is allocated to each distinct performance obligation and recognized as revenue, as or when, the performance obligation is satisfied. The Company recognizes revenue when it transfers control of a product to a customer. Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, taking into account contractually defined terms of payments and excludes tax and duties collected on behalf of the government. The Company recognizes revenue from the following major sources:

i. Sale of Products (including scrap sales):

Revenue from sale of products including scrap sales is measured based on the consideration specified in a contract with a customer. It is measured at fair value consideration received or receivable, net of returns and allowances, trade discounts. The Company recognizes revenue when it transfers control over a product to a customer i.e. when goods are delivered at the delivery point, as per terms of the agreement, which could be either customer premises or carrier premises who will deliver goods to the customer. When payments received from customers exceed revenue recognized to date on a particular contract, any excess (a contract liability) is reported in the Balance Sheet under other current liabilities. (see note 30)

Satisfaction of performance obligations

The Company's revenue is derived from the single performance obligation to transfer primarily products under arrangements in which the transfer of control of the products and the fulfilment of the Company's performance obligation occur at the same time. Revenue from the sale of goods is recognized when the Company has transferred control of the goods to the buyer and the buyer obtains the benefits from the goods, the potential cash flows and the amount of revenue (the transaction price) can be measured reliably, and it is probable that the Company will collect the consideration to which it is entitled to in exchange for the goods.

Whether the customer has obtained control over the asset depends on when the goods are made available to the carrier or the buyer takes possession of the goods, depending on the delivery terms. For the Company, generally the criteria to recognize revenue has been met when its products are delivered to its customers this is the point in time when the Company has completed its performance obligations. Revenue is measured at the transaction price of the consideration received or receivable, the amount the Company expects to be entitled to.

Payment terms:

The sale of goods is typically made under credit payment terms differing from customer to customer and ranges between 0-60 days.

Contract assets and contract liabilities

The Company recognizes contract liabilities for consideration received in respect of unsatisfied performance obligations and reports these amounts as other liabilities in the balance sheet. Similarly, if the Company satisfies a performance obligation before it receives the consideration, the Company recognizes either a contract asset or a receivable in its balance sheet, depending on whether something other than the passage of time is required before the consideration is due.

A contract asset is the right to consideration in exchange for goods or services transferred to the customer. If the Company performs by transferring goods or services to a customer before the customer pays consideration or before payment is due, a contract asset is recognized for the earned consideration when that right is conditional on Company's future performance. A contract liability is the obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Company has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer. If a customer pays consideration before the Company transfers goods or services to the customer, a contract liability is recognized when the payment is made or the payment is due (whichever is earlier). Contract liabilities are recognized as revenue when the Company performs under the contract. The Company does not expect to have any contracts where the period between the transfer of the promised goods or services to the customer and payment by the customer exceeds one year. As a consequence, the Company does not adjust any of the transaction prices for the time value of money.

Trade receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from customers for goods sold in the ordinary course of business and reflects Company's unconditional right to consideration (that is, payment is due only on the passage of time). Trade receivables are recognized initially at the transaction price as they do not contain significant financing components. The Company holds the trade receivables with the objective of collecting the contractual cash flows and therefore measures them subsequently at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less loss allowance.

Transfer of trade receivables

The Company transfers certain trade receivables under bill discounting arrangements with banks. These transferred receivables do not qualify for derecognition as the Company retains the credit risk with respect to these transferred receivables due to the existence of the recourse arrangement. Consequently, the proceeds received from such transfers with recourse arrangements are recorded as borrowings from banks and classified under current borrowings.

ii. Income from export incentives:

Income from export incentives viz. Duty Drawback and Remission of Duties or Taxes on Export Products Scheme (RODTEP) are recognized on accrual basis.

iii. Other Income:

Interest incomes from financial assets are recognized using the effective interest rate method.

Dividends income is recognized at the time when the right to receive payment is established.

Other Income is recognized on accrual basis.

iv. Rental Income:

The Company earns rental income from operating leases of its investment property (also refer note 7). Rental income from investment property is recognized in statement of profit and loss on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

b) Property, plant and equipment

i. Initial recognition and measurement:

Items of property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Cost of an items of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price, including import duties and non-refundable purchase taxes, after deducting trade discounts and rebates, any directly attributable cost of bringing the items to its working condition for its intended use and estimated cost of dismantling and removing the item and restoring the site on which it is located.

The cost of a self-constructed property, plant and equipment comprises the cost of materials and direct Labour, any other costs directly attributable to bringing the item to working condition for its intended use, and estimated costs of dismantling and removing the item and restoring the site on which it is located.

If significant parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, then they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment.

ii. Subsequent costs:

Subsequent expenditure is recognized as an increase in the carrying amount of the asset when it is probable that future economic benefits deriving from the cost incurred will flow to the enterprise and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

(All amounts are in Lakh of Indian Rupees, unless otherwise stated)

The cost of replacing part of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognized in the carrying amount of the item if it is probable that the future economic benefits embodied within the part will flow to the Company and its cost can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognized. The costs of the day-to-day servicing of property, plant and equipment are recognized in the statement of profit and loss as incurred.

iii. Derecognition:

Property, plant and equipment is derecognized when no future economic benefits are expected from their use or upon their disposal. Gains and losses on disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment are determined by comparing the proceeds from disposal with the carrying amount of property, plant and equipment, and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss.

iv. Depreciation:

Depreciation is recognized in statement of profit and loss on a straight-line basis over the useful lives of each part of an item of property, plant and equipment specified in schedule II to the Act.

Land is not depreciated.

Depreciation on additions to/deductions from property, plant and equipment during the year is charged on prorata basis from/up to the date in which the asset is available for use/disposed. Depreciation method, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each financial year-end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate. Based on technical evaluation, the management believes that its estimates of useful lives as given above best represent the period over which management expects to use these assets.

c) Other Intangible assets

i. Recognition and measurement:

Intangible assets are stated at cost of acquisition net of recoverable taxes, trade discounts and rebates less accumulated amortization/depletion and impairment loss, if any. Such cost includes purchase price, borrowing costs and any cost directly attributable to bringing the assets to its working condition for the intended use. Net changes on foreign exchange contracts and adjustments arise from exchange rate variations attributable to intangible assets.

Subsequent costs are included in the assets carrying amount or recognized as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefit associated with the item will flow to the entity and the cost can be measured reliably.

ii. Derecognition:

An intangible asset is derecognized when no future economic benefits are expected from their use or upon their disposal. Gain or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset are measured as the differences between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the assets and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when the assets is derecognized.

iii. Amortization:

Cost of software recognized as intangible asset, is amortized on straight line method over a period of legal right to use or 5 years, as estimated by the management.

Amortization method, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at the end of each financial year and adjusted, if appropriate.

d) Capital work-in-progress

Expenditure incurred during the period of construction, including all direct and indirect expenses, incidental and related to construction, is carried forward and on completion, the costs are allocated to the respective property, plant and equipment. Capital work-in-progress also includes assets pending installation and not available for intended use.

e) Investment Property

Property that is held for long- term rental yields or for capital appreciation or both and that is not occupied by the Company, is classified as investment property. Investment properties are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment property is measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Subsequent costs are added to the carrying amount only when it is probable that it will increase its useful life. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss during the year in which they are incurred. Though the Company measures investment property using cost based measurement, the fair value of the investment property is disclosed in the notes. Fair value is determined based on an annual evaluation performed by an accredited external independent valuer applying a recognized and recommended valuation model.

Depreciation on investment property, is provided on a pro-rata basis on a straight line method basis, over the useful life of the property estimated by management, in the manner prescribed in Schedule II of the Act.

Investment property is derecognized when either it has been disposed off or when the investment property is permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefit is expected from its disposal. Any gain or loss arising on de-recognition of the investment property is included in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Transfers are made to/from investment property only when there is a change in its use. Transfers between investment property is made at the carrying amount of the property transferred.

f) Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs are interest and other costs incurred in connection with the borrowings of funds. Borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets are capitalized as part of cost of such asset until such time the assets are substantially ready for their intended use. Qualifying assets are assets which take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale.

When the Company borrows funds specifically for the purpose of obtaining a qualifying asset, the borrowing costs incurred are capitalized. When Company borrows funds generally and uses them for the purpose of obtaining a qualifying asset, the capitalization of the borrowing costs is computed based on the weighted average cost of general borrowing that are outstanding during the period and used for the acquisition or construction of the qualifying asset. Capitalization of borrowing costs ceases when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying assets for their intended uses are complete.

Income earned on temporary investment of the borrowings pending their expenditure on the qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalization.

Other borrowing costs are recognized as an expense in the year in which they are incurred.

g) Impairment of non-financial assets

Assessment is done at each balance sheet date as to whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. For the purpose of assessing impairment, the smallest identifiable group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets and group of assets, is considered as a cash generating unit. If any such indication exists, an estimate of the recoverable amount of the asset/cash generating unit is made.

Assets whose carrying value exceeds their recoverable amount are written down to the recoverable amount. Recoverable amount is higher of an asset's or cash generating unit's selling price and its value in use. Value in use is the present value of estimated future cash flows expected to raise from continuing use of an asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life. Assessment is also done at each balance sheet date as to whether there is any indication that an impairment loss recognized for an asset in prior accounting periods may no longer exist or may have decreased.

h) Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value after providing for obsolescence and other losses wherever considered necessary. Cost of inventories comprises of cost of purchase, cost of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. The cost of purchase consists of the purchase price including duties and taxes other than those subsequently recoverable by the enterprise from the taxing authorities, freight inwards and other expenditure directly attributable for its acquisition.

MOHINDRA FASTENERS LIMITEDNotes To Standalone Financial Statements For The Year Ended 31st March 2025 (Contd.)

(All amounts are in Lakh of Indian Rupees, unless otherwise stated)

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Finished goods and stores, spares and consumables are valued at lower of cost and net realizable value and the comparison is made on an item-by-item basis.

The methods of determining cost of various categories of inventories are as under:

Nature of Inventories	Method of valuation
Raw materials	First in first out method
Stores and spares and consumables	First in first out method
Finished goods and work-in-progress	Raw material cost on first in first out method and includes conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present value and locations

Stock in transit is valued at lower of cost and net realizable value. Scrap is valued at estimated net realizable value.

i) Provisions and contingent liabilities and contingent assetsi. Provisions:

A provision is recognized if, as a result of a past event, the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) that can be estimated reliably, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as a finance cost.

The amount recognized as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at reporting date, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation.

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, the receivable is recognized as an asset if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably. The expense relating to a provision is presented in the statement of profit and loss net of any reimbursement.

ii. Contingent Liabilities:

Contingent liabilities are possible obligations that arise from past events and whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events not wholly within the control of the Company. Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote. Contingent liabilities are disclosed on the basis of judgment of the management/independent experts. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and are adjusted to reflect the current management estimate.

iii. Contingent Assets:

Contingent assets are neither recognized nor disclosed in the financial statements.

j) Cash and cash equivalents:

Cash and cash equivalents in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less from the date of acquisition, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit/(loss) before tax is appropriately classified for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future receipts or payments. In the cash flow statement, cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand, cheques on hand, balances with banks in current accounts and other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less.

k) Foreign currency transactions and translation:

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded at the functional currency spot rates at the date the transaction first qualifies for recognition.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency spot rates of exchange at the reporting date. Exchange differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognized in the statement of profit and loss in the year in which it arises.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction.

The Company uses derivative financial instruments, such as forward currency contracts to hedge its foreign currency risks in respect of its imports and exports. Such derivative financial instruments are initially recognized at fair value on the date on which a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently re-measured at fair value.

Derivatives are carried as financial assets when the fair value is positive and as financial liabilities when the fair value is negative. Any gains or losses arising from changes in the fair value of derivatives are taken to the statement of profit and loss.

l) Employee benefits

i. Short term employee benefits

Short- term employee benefit obligations are measured on an undiscounted basis and are expensed as the relative service is provided. A liability is recognized for the amount expected to be paid e.g., under short-term cash bonus, if the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee, and the amount of obligation can be estimated reliably.

ii. Defined contribution plan

A defined contribution plan is a post-employment benefit plan under which an entity pays fixed contributions into separate entities and will have no legal or constructive obligation to pay further amounts. Obligations for contributions to defined contribution plans are recognized as an employee benefits expense in the statement of profit and loss in the period during which services are rendered by employees. The Company pays fixed contribution to government administered provident fund scheme at predetermined rates. The contributions to the fund for the year are recognized as expense and are charged to the statement of profit and loss.

iii. Defined benefit plan

A defined benefit plan is a post-employment benefit plan other than a defined contribution plan. The Company's liability towards gratuity is in the nature of defined benefit plans.

The Company's net obligation in respect of defined benefit plan is calculated separately by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in return for their service in the current and prior periods; that benefit is discounted to determine its present value. Any unrecognized past service costs are deducted. The discount rate is based on the prevailing market yields of Indian government securities as at the reporting date that have maturity dates approximating the terms of the Company's obligations and that are denominated in the same currency in which the benefits are expected to be paid.

The calculation is performed annually by a qualified actuary using the projected unit credit method. When the calculation results in a benefit to the Company, the recognized asset is limited to the total of any unrecognized past service costs. Any actuarial gains or losses are recognized in other comprehensive income in the period in which they arise.

iv. Other long-term employee benefits

Benefits under the Company's leave encashment constitute other long-term employee benefit. The employees can carry forward a portion of the unutilized accrued compensated absences i.e., Maximum 90 days and utilize it in future service periods or receive cash compensation on termination of employment. The benefit is discounted to determine its present value. The discount rate is based on the prevailing market yields of Indian government securities as at the reporting date that have maturity dates approximating the terms of the Company's obligations. The obligation is measured on the basis of independent actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method.

(All amounts are in Lakh of Indian Rupees, unless otherwise stated)

m) Leases including investment properties

The Company assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. That is, if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Company as a lessee

The Company's lease asset classes primarily consist of property leases. The Company assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Company assesses whether:

- (i) the contract involves the use of an identified asset;
- (ii) the Company has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease; and
- (iii) the Company has the right to direct the use of the asset.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Company recognizes a right-of-use asset ("ROU") and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and low value leases. For these short-term and low value leases, the Company recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

Certain lease arrangements include the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. ROU assets and lease liabilities includes these options when it is reasonably certain that they will be exercised.

The right-of-use assets are initially recognized at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset.

The lease liability is initially measured at amortized cost at the present value of the future lease payments.

The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rates in the country of domicile of these leases. Lease liabilities are re-measured with a corresponding adjustment to the related right-of-use asset if the Company changes its assessment if whether it will exercise an extension or a termination option.

n) Taxes on Income:

Income-tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. Current tax expense is recognized in the statement of profit and loss except to the extent that it relates to items recognized directly in other comprehensive income or equity, in which case it is recognized in other comprehensive income or equity.

Current Tax

Current tax comprises the expected tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the year and any adjustment to the tax payable or receivable in respect of previous Years. The using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted and as applicable at the reporting date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred Tax

Deferred tax is recognized using the balance sheet method, providing for temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the Corresponding amounts used for taxation purposes. Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied to temporary differences when they reverse, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax liabilities and assets, and they relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority.

Deferred tax is recognized in the statement of profit and loss except to the extent that it relates to items recognized directly in other comprehensive income or equity, in which case it is recognized in other comprehensive income or equity.

A deferred tax asset is recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the temporary difference can be utilized. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

o) Earnings per Share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for events including a bonus issue, bonus element in a rights issue to existing shareholders, share split and reverse share split (consolidation of shares), as applicable.

Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are considered for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

p) Equity Investment

Equity investments in joint venture are measured at cost. The investments are reviewed at each reporting date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment considering the provisions of Ind AS 36 'Impairment of Assets'. If any such indication exists, policy for impairment of non-financial assets is followed.

q) Financial instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

Financial Assets

i. Initial recognition and measurement:

All financial assets are recognised initially at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets (other than financial assets at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets, as appropriate, on initial recognition. However, trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at transaction price in accordance with Ind AS 115. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in the standalone statement of profit and loss.

ii. Subsequent measurement:

a. Financial assets carried at amortized cost

A financial asset is subsequently measured at amortized cost if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

b. Financial assets carried at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI)

A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

(All amounts are in Lakh of Indian Rupees, unless otherwise stated)

c. Financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)

A financial asset which is not classified in any of the above categories are subsequently fair valued through the statement of profit and loss.

iii. Derecognition

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a Company of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognized (i.e. removed from the Company's balance sheet) when:

The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or

The Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement; and either (a) the Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

iv. Impairment of financial assets

In accordance with IndAS109, the Company applies expected credit loss (ECL) model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on the following financial assets and credit risk exposure:

(a) Financial assets that are debt instruments, and are measured at amortized cost e.g., loans, debt securities, deposits, trade receivables and bank balance.

(b) Trade receivables using the lifetime expected credit loss model.

For recognition of impairment loss on other financial assets and risk exposure, the Company determines that whether there has been a significant increase in the credit risk since initial recognition. If credit risk has not increased significantly, 12-month ECL is used to provide for impairment loss. However, if credit risk has increased significantly, lifetime ECL is used. If, in a subsequent period, credit quality of the instrument improves such that there is no longer a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, then the entity reverts to recognizing impairment loss allowance based on 12-month ECL.

Financial Liabilities

i. Initial recognition and measurement:

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, borrowings, payables, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate. All financial liabilities are recognized initially at fair value and, in the case of borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs. The Company's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, borrowings and derivative financial instruments.

ii. Subsequent measurement:

The measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification, as described below:

a. Financial liabilities at amortized cost

After initial measurement, such financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the EIR method. Gains and losses are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when the liabilities are derecognized as well as through the EIR amortization process. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortization is included in finance costs in the statement of profit and loss. This category generally applies to borrowings, trade payables and other contractual liabilities.

iii. Derecognition:

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognized in the statement of profit and loss.

Offsetting: Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet where there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or the counterparty.

4. Significant accounting judgments, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of standalone financial statements in conformity with the recognition and measurement principles of Ind AS requires management of the Company to make estimates and judgements that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities, disclosures of contingent liabilities as at the date of standalone financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses for the periods presented.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and future periods are affected.

In order to enhance understanding of the financial statements information about significant areas of estimation, uncertainty and critical judgments in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the standalone financial statements is as under:

i. Recognition of deferred tax assets:

The extent to which deferred tax assets can be recognized is based on an assessment of the probability of the Company's future taxable income (supported by reliable evidence) against which the deferred tax assets can be utilized.

ii. Evaluation of indicators for impairment of assets

The evaluation of applicability of indicators of impairment of assets requires assessment of several external and internal factors which could result in deterioration of recoverable amount of the assets.

iii. Contingent liabilities

At each balance sheet date basis the management judgment, changes in facts and legal aspects, the Company assesses the requirement of provisions against the outstanding contingent liabilities. However, the actual future outcome may be different from this judgement (Refer Note No-42).

iv. Impairment of financial assets

At each balance sheet date, based on historical default rates observed over expected life, existing market conditions as well as forward looking estimates, the management assesses the expected credit losses on outstanding receivables. Further, management also considers the factors that may influence the credit risk of its customer base, including the default risk associated with industry and country in which the customer operates.

v. Defined benefit obligation (DBO)

Management's estimate of the DBO is based on a number of underlying assumptions such as standard rates of inflation, mortality, discount rate and anticipation of future salary increases. Variation in these assumptions may significantly impact the DBO amount and the annual defined benefit expenses (Refer Note No-41).

vi. Useful lives of depreciable/amortizable assets

Management reviews its estimate of the useful lives of depreciable/amortizable assets at each reporting date, based on the expected utility of the assets. Uncertainties in these estimates relate to technical and economic obsolescence that may change the utilisation of assets.

vii. Fair value Measurements

Management applies valuation techniques to determine fair value of equity shares (where active market quotes are not available) and stock option. This involves developing estimates and assumptions around volatility, dividend yield which may affect the value of equity shares or stock options.

Estimates and judgements are continuously evaluated. They are based on historical experience and other factors including expectation of future events that may have a financial impact on the Company and that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

41 (b)(i) Defined benefits plans - Gratuity

The gratuity liability arises on retirement, withdrawal, resignation and death of an employee. The aforesaid liability is calculated on the basis of fifteen days salary (i.e. last drawn basic salary) for each completed year of service subject to vesting period of 5 years of service as per provisions of Payment of Gratuity Act 1972 as amended.”.

Policy for recognizing actuarial gains and losses:

Actuarial gains and losses of defined benefit plan arising from experience adjustments and effects of changes in actuarial assumptions are immediately recognized in other comprehensive income. Risks associated with the plan provisions are actuarial risks. These risks are investment risk, mortality risk and salary risk.

Investment risk

Plan assets comprise funds managed by the insurer i.e. Life Insurance Corporation of India ('LIC').

Mortality risk

The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the best estimate of the mortality of plan participants. A change in mortality rate will have a bearing on the plan's liability.

Salary risk

The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated with the assumption of salary increase rate of plan participants in future. Deviation in the rate of increase of salary in future for plan participants from the rate of increase in salary used to determine the present value of obligation will have a bearing on the plan's liability.

The Company has an established control framework with respect to the measurement of fair values. The finance and accounts team that has overall responsibility for overseeing all significant fair value measurements and reports directly to the board of directors. The team regularly reviews significant unobservable inputs and valuation adjustments. If third party information, such as broker quotes or pricing services, is used to measure fair values, then the team assesses the evidence obtained from the third parties to support the conclusion that these valuations meet the requirements of Ind AS, including the level in the fair value hierarchy in which the valuations should be classified. Significant valuation issues are reported to the Company's board of directors.

Fair values are categorized into different levels in a fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used in the valuation techniques as follows:

Level 1: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices)

Level 3: inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

There have been no transfers in either direction for the year ended 31 March 2025 and 31 March 2024 Measurement of fair values.

Valuation techniques and significant unobservable inputs.

Financial instruments measured at fair value

Type	Valuation technique	Significant Unobservable inputs	Inter relationship between significant unobservable inputs and fair value
Investments in quoted Equity shares measured at fair value through Other comprehensive income	The fair values of investment in Equity shares is determined using quoted price as at the balance sheet date.	Not applicable	Not applicable

Fair value of financial assets and liabilities measured at amortized cost

The carrying amounts of short-term trade and other receivables, trade payables, cash and cash equivalents and other bank balances are considered to be the same as their fair values, due to their short-term nature.

For other financial liabilities/ assets that are not measured at fair value, the carrying amounts are considered equal to their respective fair values.

Contract Price	15998.75	17123.38
Less: Discounts and freight	Nil	Nil
Addition in balance of contract liabilities for current year	Nil	Nil
Revenue from operations as per Statement of Profit and Loss	15998.75	17123.38

(f) Satisfaction of performance obligations

The Company's revenue is derived from the single performance obligation to transfer primarily hi-tensile fasteners under arrangements in which the transfer of control of the products and the fulfillment of the Company's performance obligation occur at the same time. Revenue from the sale of goods is recognized when the Company has transferred control of the goods to the buyer and the buyer obtains the benefits from the goods, the potential cash flows and the amount of revenue (the transaction price) can be measured reliably, and it is probable that the Company will collect the consideration to which it is entitled to in exchange for the goods.

Whether the customer has obtained control over the asset depends on when the goods are made available to the carrier or the buyer takes possession of the goods, depending on the delivery terms. In case of the Company's operations, generally the criteria to recognize revenue has been met when its products are delivered to its customers or to a carrier who will transport the goods to its customers, this is the point in time when the Company has completed its performance obligations.

(All amounts are in Lakh of Indian Rupees, unless otherwise stated)

(g) Payment terms

The sale of goods is typically made under credit payment terms differing from customer to customer and ranges between 0-60 days.

(h) Variable considerations associated with such sales

Periodically, the Company enters into volume or other rebate programs where once a certain volume or other conditions are met, it refunds the customer some portion of the amounts previously billed or paid. For such arrangements, the Company only recognizes revenue for the amounts it ultimately expects to realise from the customer. The Company estimates the variable consideration for these programs using the most likely amount method or the expected value method, whichever approach best predicts the amount of the consideration based on the terms of the contract and available information and updates its estimates each reporting period.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To The Members of Mohindra Fasteners Limited

Report on the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the Consolidated financial statements of Mohindra Fasteners Limited, ("the Company") and its joint venture, as listed in Annexure-"A", which comprise the Consolidated Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2025, and the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), Consolidated Statement of Changes in Equity and the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows for the Year then ended, and notes to the Consolidated financial statements, including a Consolidated summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to be "the Consolidated Financial Statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and based on the consideration of the reports of the other auditors on separate financial statements and on the other financial information of the joint venture the aforesaid consolidated financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the State of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2025, its Profit and other comprehensive income, Changes in Equity and its Cash Flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Consolidated financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in paragraph of the other Matter section below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment and based on the consideration of the reports of the other auditors on separate financial statements and on the other financial information of the joint venture were of most significance in our audit of the Consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matter described below to be the Key audit matter to be communicated in our report.

Independent Auditor's Report on the Consolidated Financial statements of Mohindra Fasteners Limited for the year ended 31st March 2025 (Contd.)

We have determined the matter described below to be the Key audit matter to be communicated in our report.

Revenue recognition See Note No. 3(a) 30 and 53 to the consolidated financial statements:

S.NO.	KEY AUDIT MATTERS	AUDITOR'S RESPONSE
1.	In accordance with principles of Ind As-115 Revenue from sale of goods is recognized when control of the products being sold is transferred to the customer and when there are no longer any unfulfilled obligations. The performance obligations in the contracts are fulfilled at the time of dispatch, delivery or upon formal customer acceptance depending on customer terms	Our audit procedures for testing revenue recognition included, but were not limited to the following: • We assessed the appropriateness of the revenue recognition accounting policies, including those relating to rebates and discounts by comparing with applicable accounting standards. • We tested the design, implementation and operating effectiveness of management's general IT controls and key application controls over the Company's IT systems which govern revenue recognition, including access controls, controls over program changes, interfaces between different systems and key manual internal controls over revenue recognition to assess the completeness or a sample of transaction. • We perform substantive testing by selecting samples of revenue transactions recorded during the year by verifying the underlying documents, which included customer purchase order, invoices, goods dispatch notes and shipping documents. • We inspected, on a sample basis, key customer contracts to identify terms and conditions relating to goods acceptance and rebates and assessing the Company's revenue recognition policies with reference to the requirements of the applicable accounting standards. • We performed cut off testing for samples of revenue transactions recorded before and after the financial year end date by comparing with relevant underlying documentation, which included goods dispatch notes and shipping documents, to assess whether the revenue was recognized in the current period.

Provision for taxation, litigation and other significant provisions

See Note No. 3(n), 3(i), 29, and 38 to consolidated the financial Statements:

S.NO.	KEY AUDIT MATTERS	AUDITOR'S RESPONSE
2.	Determination of tax Provisions and other contingencies requires the Management to make judgments and estimates in relation to the issues and exposures arising from a range of matters relating to direct tax, indirect tax, claims, general legal proceedings, environmental issues and other eventualities arising in the regular course of business. The key judgement lies in the estimation of provisions where they may differ from the future obligations. By nature, provision is difficult to estimate and includes many variables. Additionally, depending on timing, there is a risk that costs could be provided inappropriately that are not yet committed	Our audit procedures included but were not limited to the following: • We tested the effectiveness of controls around the recognition of provisions. • We used subject matter experts to assess the value of material provisions in light of the nature of the exposures, applicable regulations and related correspondence with the authorities. • We challenged the assumptions and critical judgments made by management which impacted their estimate of the provisions required, considering judgments previously made by the authorities in the relevant jurisdictions or any relevant opinions given by the Company's advisors and assessing whether there was an indication of management bias. • We discussed the status in respect of significant provisions with the Company's internal tax and legal team. • We performed retrospective review of management judgements relating to accounting estimate included in the financial statement of prior year and compared with the outcome.

Information other than the Consolidated Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the Consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the Annual Report, If we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance and take necessary actions, as applicable under the relevant laws and regulations.

Managements and Board of director's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and Cash Flows of the Company in accordance the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under section 133 of the Act. The respective Board of Directors of the Company and its joint venture are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting the frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the company, as aforesaid..

In preparing the Consolidated financial statements, the respective Board of Directors of the company and of its joint venture are responsible for assessing the ability of the company and of its joint venture to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company and of its joint venture or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process of the companies and of its joint venture.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures in the financial statement made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of Board of director's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matter communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Other Matter

The Consolidated financial statements include the company's share of net loss (including other comprehensive income) of Rs. 31.43 Lakh for the year ended 31 March 2025, as considered in the consolidated financial statements, in respect of the joint venture, whose financial statement has not been audited by us. These financial statements

Annexure–“B” to the Independent Auditor’s Report on the Consolidated financial statements of Mohindra Fasteners Limited for the year ended 31st March 2025.

Independent Auditor’s Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to consolidated Financial statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”)

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Mohindra Fasteners Limited, DELHI (“the Company”) as of March 31, 2025 in conjunction with our audit of the Consolidated financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management’s Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Board of Directors of the Company and Joint Venture Company are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (hereinafter “ICAI”). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditor’s Responsibility

The audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of the aforementioned Joint venture company, which is a company covered under the Act, and reporting under section 143(3)(i) is exempted vide MCA notification no. G.S.R. 583(E) dated 13 June 2017 read with corrigendum dated 14 July, 2017. Consequently, Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls, and both issued by ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A Company’s internal financial control with reference to financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Company’s internal financial control with reference to financial statements includes those policies and procedures that;

- I. pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company;

Annexure–“B” to the Independent Auditor’s Report of ever date to the members of of Mohindra Fasterners Limited on the Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended 31st March 2025 (Contd.)

Independent Auditor’s Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to Consolidated Financial statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”)

- II. provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Company; and
- III. Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company’s assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to over Consolidated financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting with reference to these Consolidated financial statements and such internal financial controls over financial reporting with reference to these Consolidated financial statements were operating effectively as at March 31, 2025, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

(All amounts are in Lakh of Indian Rupees, unless otherwise stated)

1. Corporate and General Information

Mohindra Fasteners Limited ("MFL" or "the Company") was incorporated on 10th January, 1995 under the erstwhile companies Act, 1956 and is domiciled in India (CIN: L74899DL1995PLC064215). The Equity shares of the company is listed in the Metropolitan Stock Exchange of India Limited ('MSEI') and not publicly traded.

The registered office of the Company is situated at 304, Gupta Arcade, Inder Enclave, Jwala Puri, Delhi-Rohtak Road, Delhi-110087, INDIA. The company is engaged in the Manufacturing and sale of High Tensile Fasteners.

2. Basis of Preparation

a) Statement of Compliance

These Consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the company and its Joint venture. These consolidated financial statements are prepared on accrual basis of accounting and comply with the Indian Accounting standards ('Ind AS') as notified by the Ministry of corporate affairs under section 133 of Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act') read with the companies (Indian Accounting standards) Rules, 2015 and subsequent amendments thereto, and other provisions of the Act (to the extent notified and applicable).

The Consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31st March 2025 (including comparatives) are duly approved and authorized for issue by the Board of directors at their board meeting held on 24th May, 2025.

b) Overall considerations

The financial statements have been prepared on going concern basis applying the significant accounting policies and measurement bases summarized below. These accounting policies have been used throughout all periods presented in the consolidated financial statements, unless otherwise stated.

c) Basis of measurement

The Consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for the following items:

Items	Measurement basis
Certain financial assets and liabilities	Fair Value
Net defined benefit (assets)/liability	Fair value of planned assets less present value of defined benefit obligations

The methods used to measure fair values are discussed further in notes to financial statements.

d) Functional and presentation currency

These financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (Rs.), which is also the company's functional currency. All financial information presented in Indian Rupees has been rounded to the nearest Lakh (up to two decimals), except as stated otherwise.

e) Principles of Consolidation and Equity Accounting

Interest in joint venture is accounted for using the equity method, after initially being recognized at cost in the consolidated balance sheet.

Under the equity method of accounting, the investment initially recognized at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognize the Company's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses of the investee in profit and loss, and the Company's share of other comprehensive income of the investee in other comprehensive income. Dividends received or receivable from joint venture are recognized as a reduction in the carrying amount of the investment.

When the Company's share of losses in an equity-accounted investment equal or exceeds its interest in the entity, including any other unsecured long-term receivables, the Company does not recognize further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the other entity. Unrealized gains on transactions between the Company and joint venture are eliminated to the extent of the Company's interest in these entities. Unrealized losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of equity accounted investees have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Company.

f) Current and non-current classification

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current and non-current as per the Company's normal operating cycle. Based on the nature of services rendered to customers and time elapsed between deployment of resources and the realization in cash and cash equivalents of the consideration for such services rendered, the Company has considered an operating cycle of 12 months.

g) Measurement of fair values

A number of the Company's accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair values. In determining the fair value of its financial instruments, the Company uses a variety of methods and assumptions that are based on market conditions and risks existing at each reporting date. The Chief Financial Officer and persons entrusted have overall responsibility for overseeing all significant fair value measurements, including Level 1 fair values and assessments that these valuations meet the requirements of Ind AS. The methods used to determine fair value include discounted cash flow analysis, available quoted market prices and dealer quotes. All methods of assessing fair value result in general approximation of value, and such value may never actually be realized.

Fair values are categorized into different levels in a fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used in the valuation techniques.

The Company recognizes transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy at the end of the reporting period during which the change has occurred. Further information about the assumptions made in measuring fair values (Refer Note-46 of the Consolidated Financial statements).

3. Summary of Material accounting policies

a) Revenue Recognition

Revenue is measured based on the consideration specified in a contract with a customer. A performance obligation is a promise in a contract to transfer a distinct good (or a bundle of goods) to the customer and is the unit of account in Ind AS 115. A contract's transaction price is allocated to each distinct performance obligation and recognized as revenue, as or when, the performance obligation is satisfied. The Company recognizes revenue when it transfers control of a product to a customer. Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, taking into account contractually defined terms of payments and excludes tax and duties collected on behalf of the government. The Company recognizes revenue from the following major sources:

i. Sale of Products (including scrap sales):

Revenue from sale of products including scrap sales is measured based on the consideration specified in a contract with a customer. It is measured at fair value consideration received or receivable, net of returns and allowances, trade discounts. The Company recognizes revenue when it transfers control over a product to a customer i.e. when goods are delivered at the delivery point, as per terms of the agreement, which could be either customer premises or carrier premises who will deliver goods to the customer. When payments received from customers exceed revenue recognized to date on a particular contract, any excess (a contract liability) is reported in the Balance Sheet under other current liabilities (see note 30).

Satisfaction of performance obligations

The Company's revenue is derived from the single performance obligation to transfer primarily products under arrangements in which the transfer of control of the products and the fulfilment of the Company's performance obligation occur at the same time. Revenue from the sale of goods is recognized when the Company has transferred control of the goods to the buyer and the buyer obtains the benefits from the goods, the potential cash flows and the amount of revenue (the transaction price) can be measured reliably, and it is probable that the Company will collect the consideration to which it is entitled to in exchange for the goods.

Whether the customer has obtained control over the asset depends on when the goods are made available to the carrier or the buyer takes possession of the goods, depending on the delivery terms. For the Company, generally the criteria to recognize revenue has been met when its products are delivered to its customers this is the point in time when the Company has completed its performance obligations. Revenue is measured at the transaction price of the consideration received or receivable, the amount the Company expects to be entitled to.

(All amounts are in Lakh of Indian Rupees, unless otherwise stated)

Payment terms:

The sale of goods is typically made under credit payment terms differing from customer to customer and ranges between 0-60 days.

Contract assets and contract liabilities

The Company recognizes contract liabilities for consideration received in respect of unsatisfied performance obligations and reports these amounts as other liabilities in the balance sheet. Similarly, if the Company satisfies a performance obligation before it receives the consideration, the Company recognizes either a contract asset or a receivable in its balance sheet, depending on whether something other than the passage of time is required before the consideration is due.

A contract asset is the right to consideration in exchange for goods or services transferred to the customer. If the Company performs by transferring goods or services to a customer before the customer pays consideration or before payment is due, a contract asset is recognized for the earned consideration when that right is conditional on Company's future performance. A contract liability is the obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Company has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer. If a customer pays consideration before the Company transfers goods or services to the customer, a contract liability is recognized when the payment is made or the payment is due (whichever is earlier). Contract liabilities are recognized as revenue when the Company performs under the contract. The Company does not expect to have any contracts where the period between the transfer of the promised goods or services to the customer and payment by the customer exceeds one year. As a consequence, the Company does not adjust any of the transaction prices for the time value of money.

Trade receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from customers for goods sold in the ordinary course of business and reflects Company's unconditional right to consideration (that is, payment is due only on the passage of time). Trade receivables are recognized initially at the transaction price as they do not contain significant financing components. The Company holds the trade receivables with the objective of collecting the contractual cash flows and therefore measures them subsequently at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less loss allowance.

Transfer of trade receivables

The Company transfers certain trade receivables under bill discounting arrangements with banks. These transferred receivables do not qualify for derecognition as the Company retains the credit risk with respect to these transferred receivables due to the existence of the recourse arrangement. Consequently, the proceeds received from such transfers with recourse arrangements are recorded as borrowings from banks and classified under current borrowings.

ii. Income from export incentives:

Income from export incentives viz. Duty Drawback and Remission of Duties or Taxes on Export Products Scheme (RODTEP) are recognized on accrual basis.

iii. Other Income:

Interest incomes from financial assets are recognized using the effective interest rate method.

Dividends income is recognized at the time when the right to receive payment is established.

Other Income is recognized on accrual basis.

iv. Rental Income:

The Company earns rental income from operating leases of its investment property (also refer note 7. Rental income from investment property is recognized in statement of profit and loss on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease

b) Property, plant and equipment

i. Initial recognition and measurement:

Items of property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Cost of an items of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price, including import duties and non-refundable purchase taxes, after deducting trade discounts and rebates, any directly attributable cost of bringing the items to its working condition for its intended use and estimated cost of dismantling and removing the item and restoring the site on which it is located.

The cost of a self-constructed property, plant and equipment comprises the cost of materials and direct Labour, any other costs directly attributable to bringing the item to working condition for its intended use, and estimated costs of dismantling and removing the item and restoring the site on which it is located.

If significant parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, then they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment.

ii. Subsequent costs:

Subsequent expenditure is recognized as an increase in the carrying amount of the asset when it is probable that future economic benefits deriving from the cost incurred will flow to the enterprise and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

The cost of replacing part of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognized in the carrying amount of the item if it is probable that the future economic benefits embodied within the part will flow to the Company and its cost can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognized. The costs of the day-to-day servicing of property, plant and equipment are recognized in the statement of profit and loss as incurred.

iii. Derecognition:

Property, plant and equipment is derecognized when no future economic benefits are expected from their use or upon their disposal. Gains and losses on disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment are determined by comparing the proceeds from disposal with the carrying amount of property, plant and equipment, and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss.

iv. Depreciation:

Depreciation is recognized in statement of profit and loss on a straight-line basis over the useful lives of each part of an item of property, plant and equipment specified in schedule II to the Act.

Land is not depreciated.

Depreciation on additions to/deductions from property, plant and equipment during the year is charged on prorated basis from/up to the date in which the asset is available for use/disposed. Depreciation method, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each financial year-end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate. Based on technical evaluation, the management believes that its estimates of useful lives as given above best represent the period over which management expects to use these assets.

c) Other Intangible assets

i. Recognition and measurement:

Intangible assets are stated at cost of acquisition net of recoverable taxes, trade discounts and rebates less accumulated amortization/depletion and impairment loss, if any. Such cost includes purchase price, borrowing costs and any cost directly attributable to bringing the assets to its working condition for the intended use, Net changes on foreign exchange contracts and adjustments arise from exchange rate variations attributable to intangible assets.

Subsequent costs are included in the assets carrying amount or recognized as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefit associated with the item will flow to the entity and the cost can be measured reliably.

(All amounts are in Lakh of Indian Rupees, unless otherwise stated)

ii. Derecognition:

An intangible asset is derecognized when no future economic benefits are expected from their use or upon their disposal. Gain or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset are measured as the differences between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the assets and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when the assets is derecognized.

iii. Amortization:

Cost of software recognized as intangible asset, is amortized on straight line method over a period of legal right to use or 5 years, as estimated by the management.

Amortization method, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at the end of each financial year and adjusted, if appropriate.

d) Capital work-in-progress

Expenditure incurred during the period of construction, including all direct and indirect expenses, incidental and related to construction, is carried forward and on completion, the costs are allocated to the respective property, plant and equipment. Capital work-in-progress also includes assets pending installation and not available for intended use.

e) Investment Property

Property that is held for long- term rental yields or for capital appreciation or both and that is not occupied by the Company, is classified as investment property. Investment properties are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment property is measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Subsequent costs are added to the carrying amount only when it is probable that it will increase its useful life. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss during the year in which they are incurred. Though the Company measures investment property using cost based measurement, the fair value of the investment property is disclosed in the notes. Fair value is determined based on an annual evaluation performed by an accredited external independent valuer applying a recognized and recommended valuation model.

Depreciation on investment property, is provided on a pro-rata basis on a straight line method, over the useful life of the property estimated by management, in the manner prescribed in Schedule II of the Act.

Investment property is derecognized when either it has been disposed off or when the investment property is permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefit is expected from its disposal. Any gain or loss arising on de-recognition of the investment property is included in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Transfers are made to/from investment property only when there is a change in its use. Transfers between investment property is made at the carrying amount of the property transferred.

f) Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs are interest and other costs incurred in connection with the borrowings of funds. Borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets are capitalized as part of cost of such asset until such time the assets are substantially ready for their intended use. Qualifying assets are assets which take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale.

When the Company borrows funds specifically for the purpose of obtaining a qualifying asset, the borrowing costs incurred are capitalized. When Company borrows funds generally and uses them for the purpose of obtaining a qualifying asset, the capitalization of the borrowing costs is computed based on the weighted average cost of general borrowing that are outstanding during the period and used for the acquisition or construction of the qualifying asset. Capitalization of borrowing costs ceases when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying assets for their intended uses are complete.

Income earned on temporary investment of the borrowings pending their expenditure on the qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalization.

Other borrowing costs are recognized as an expense in the year in which they are incurred.

g) Impairment of non-financial assets

Assessment is done at each balance sheet date as to whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. For the purpose of assessing impairment, the smallest identifiable group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets and group of assets, is considered as a cash generating unit. If any such indication exists, an estimate of the recoverable amount of the asset/cash generating unit is made. Assets whose carrying value exceeds their recoverable amount are written down to the recoverable amount. Recoverable amount is higher of an asset's or cash generating unit's selling price and its value in use. Value in use is the present value of estimated future cash flows expected to raise from continuing use of an asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life. Assessment is also done at each balance sheet date as to whether there is any indication that an impairment loss recognized for an asset in prior accounting periods may no longer exist or may have decreased.

h) Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value after providing for obsolescence and other losses wherever considered necessary. Cost of inventories comprises of cost of purchase, cost of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. The cost of purchase consists of the purchase price including duties and taxes other than those subsequently recoverable by the enterprise from the taxing authorities, freight inwards and other expenditure directly attributable for its acquisition.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Finished goods and stores, spares and consumables are valued at lower of cost and net realizable value and the comparison is made on an item-by-item basis.

The methods of determining cost of various categories of inventories are as under:

Nature of Inventories	Method of valuation
Raw materials	First in first out method
Stores and spares and consumables	First in first out method
Finished goods and work-in-progress	Raw material cost on first in first out method and includes conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present value and locations

Stock in transit is valued at lower of cost and net realizable value. Scrap is valued at estimated net realizable value.

i) Provisions and contingent liabilities and contingent assets

i. Provisions:

A provision is recognized if, as a result of a past event, the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) that can be estimated reliably, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as a finance cost

The amount recognized as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at reporting date, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation.

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, the receivable is recognized as an asset if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably. The expense relating to a provision is presented in the statement of profit and loss net of any reimbursement.

(All amounts are in Lakh of Indian Rupees, unless otherwise stated)

ii. Contingent Liabilities:

Contingent liabilities are possible obligations that arise from past events and whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events not wholly within the control of the Company. Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote. Contingent liabilities are disclosed on the basis of judgment of the management/independent experts. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and are adjusted to reflect the current management estimate.

iii. Contingent Assets:

Contingent assets are neither recognized nor disclosed in the financial statements.

j) Cash and cash equivalents:

Cash and cash equivalents in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less from the date of acquisition, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit/(loss) before tax is appropriately classified for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future receipts or payments. In the cash flow statement, cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand, cheques on hand, balances with banks in current accounts and other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less.

k) Foreign currency transactions and translation:

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded at the functional currency spot rates at the date the transaction first qualifies for recognition.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency spot rates of exchange at the reporting date. Exchange differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognized in the statement of profit and loss in the year in which it arises.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction.

The Company uses derivative financial instruments, such as forward currency contracts to hedge its foreign currency risks in respect of its imports and exports. Such derivative financial instruments are initially recognized at fair value on the date on which a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently re-measured at fair value. Derivatives are carried as financial assets when the fair value is positive and as financial liabilities when the fair value is negative. Any gains or losses arising from changes in the fair value of derivatives are taken to the statement of profit and loss.

l) Employee benefits

i. Short term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefit obligations are measured on an undiscounted basis and are expensed as the relative service is provided. A liability is recognized for the amount expected to be paid e.g., under short-term cash bonus, if the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee, and the amount of obligation can be estimated reliably.

ii. Defined contribution plan

A defined contribution plan is a post-employment benefit plan under which an entity pays fixed contributions into separate entities and will have no legal or constructive obligation to pay further amounts. Obligations for contributions to defined contribution plans are recognized as an employee benefits expense in the statement of profit and loss in the period during which services are rendered by employees. The Company pays fixed contribution to government administered provident fund scheme at predetermined rates. The contributions to the fund for the year are recognized as expense and are charged to the statement of profit and loss.

iii. Defined benefit plan

A defined benefit plan is a post-employment benefit plan other than a defined contribution plan. The Company's liability towards gratuity is in the nature of defined benefit plans.

The Company's net obligation in respect of defined benefit plan is calculated separately by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in return for their service in the current and prior periods; that benefit is discounted to determine its present value. Any unrecognized past service costs are deducted. The discount rate is based on the prevailing market yields of Indian government securities as at the reporting date that have maturity dates approximating the terms of the Company's obligations and that are denominated in the same currency in which the benefits are expected to be paid.

The calculation is performed annually by a qualified actuary using the projected unit credit method. When the calculation results in a benefit to the Company, the recognized asset is limited to the total of any unrecognized past service costs. Any actuarial gains or losses are recognized in other comprehensive income in the period in which they arise.

iv. Other long-term employee benefits

Benefits under the Company's leave encashment constitute other long-term employee benefit. The employees can carry forward a portion of the unutilized accrued compensated absences i.e., Maximum 90 days and utilize it in future service periods or receive cash compensation on termination of employment. The benefit is discounted to determine its present value. The discount rate is based on the prevailing market yields of Indian government securities as at the reporting date that have maturity dates approximating the terms of the Company's obligations. The obligation is measured on the basis of independent actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method.

m) Leases including investment properties

The Company assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. That is, if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Company as a lessee

The Company's lease asset classes primarily consist of property leases. The Company assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Company assesses whether:

- (i) the contract involves the use of an identified asset;
- (ii) the Company has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease; and
- (iii) the Company has the right to direct the use of the asset.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Company recognizes a right-of-use asset ("ROU") and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and low value leases. For these short-term and low value leases, the Company recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

Certain lease arrangements include the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. ROU assets and lease liabilities includes these options when it is reasonably certain that they will be exercised.

The right-of-use assets are initially recognized at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

(All amounts are in Lakh of Indian Rupees, unless otherwise stated)

Right-of-use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset.

The lease liability is initially measured at amortized cost at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rates in the country of domicile of these leases. Lease liabilities are re-measured with a corresponding adjustment to the related right-of-use asset if the Company changes its assessment of whether it will exercise an extension or a termination option.

n) Taxes on Income:

Income-tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. Current tax expense is recognized in the statement of profit and loss except to the extent that it relates to items recognized directly in other comprehensive income or equity, in which case it is recognized in other comprehensive income or equity.

Current Tax

Current tax comprises the expected tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the year and any adjustment to the tax payable or receivable in respect of previous Years. The using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted and as applicable at the reporting date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred Tax

Deferred tax is recognized using the balance sheet method, providing for temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the Corresponding amounts used for taxation purposes. Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied to temporary differences when they reverse, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax liabilities and assets, and they relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority.

Deferred tax is recognized in the statement of profit and loss except to the extent that it relates to items recognized directly in other comprehensive income or equity, in which case it is recognized in other comprehensive income or equity.

A deferred tax asset is recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the temporary difference can be utilized. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

o) Earnings per Share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for events including a bonus issue, bonus element in a rights issue to existing shareholders, share split and reverse share split (consolidation of shares), as applicable.

Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are considered for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

p) Equity Investment

Equity investments in joint venture are measured at cost. The investments are reviewed at each reporting date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment considering the provisions of Ind AS 36 'Impairment of Assets'. If any such indication exists, policy for impairment of non-financial assets is followed.

q) Financial instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

Financial Assets

i. Initial recognition and measurement:

All financial assets are recognised initially at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets (other than financial assets at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets, as appropriate, on initial recognition. However, trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at transaction price in accordance with Ind AS 115. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in the standalone statement of profit and loss.

ii. Subsequent measurement:

a. Financial assets carried at amortized cost

A financial asset is subsequently measured at amortized cost if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

b. Financial assets carried at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI)

A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

c. Financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)

A financial asset which is not classified in any of the above categories are subsequently fair valued through the statement of profit and loss.

iii. Derecognition

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a Company of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognized (i.e. removed from the Company's balance sheet) when:

- The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or
- The Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement; and either (a) the Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

iv. Impairment of financial assets

In accordance with Ind AS109, the Company applies expected credit loss (ECL) model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on the following financial assets and credit risk exposure:

- (a) Financial assets that are debt instruments, and are measured at amortized cost e.g., loans, debt securities, deposits, trade receivables and bank balance.
- (b) Trade receivables using the lifetime expected credit loss model.

For recognition of impairment loss on other financial assets and risk exposure, the Company determines that whether there has been a significant increase in the credit risk since initial recognition. If credit risk has not increased significantly, 12-month ECL is used to provide for impairment loss. However, if credit risk has increased significantly, lifetime ECL is used. If, in a subsequent period, credit quality of the instrument improves such that there is no longer a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, then the entity reverts to recognizing impairment loss allowance based on 12-month ECL.

(All amounts are in Lakh of Indian Rupees, unless otherwise stated)

Financial Liabilities

i. Initial recognition and measurement:

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, borrowings, payables, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate. All financial liabilities are recognized initially at fair value and, in the case of borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs. The Company's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, borrowings and derivative financial instruments.

ii. Subsequent measurement:

The measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification, as described below:

a. Financial liabilities at amortized cost

After initial measurement, such financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the EIR method. Gains and losses are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when the liabilities are derecognized as well as through the EIR amortization process. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortization is included in finance costs in the statement of profit and loss. This category generally applies to borrowings, trade payables and other contractual liabilities.

iii. Derecognition:

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognized in the statement of profit and loss.

Offsetting

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet where there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or the counterparty.

4. Significant accounting judgments, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with the recognition and measurement principles of Ind AS requires management of the Company to make estimates and judgements that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities, disclosures of contingent liabilities as at the date of consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses for the periods presented.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and future periods are affected.

In order to enhance understanding of the financial statements information about significant areas of estimation, uncertainty and critical judgments in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the consolidated financial statements is as under:

i. Recognition of deferred tax assets:

The extent to which deferred tax assets can be recognized is based on an assessment of the probability of the Company's future taxable income (supported by reliable evidence) against which the deferred tax assets can be utilized.

ii. Evaluation of indicators for impairment of assets

The evaluation of applicability of indicators of impairment of assets requires assessment of several external and internal factors which could result in deterioration of recoverable amount of the assets.

iii. Contingent liabilities

At each balance sheet date basis the management judgment, changes in facts and legal aspects, the Company assesses the requirement of provisions against the outstanding contingent liabilities. However, the actual future outcome may be different from this judgement (Refer Note No-42).

iv. Impairment of financial assets

At each balance sheet date, based on historical default rates observed over expected life, existing market conditions as well as forward looking estimates, the management assesses the expected credit losses on outstanding receivables. Further, management also considers the factors that may influence the credit risk of its customer base, including the default risk associated with industry and country in which the customer operates.

v. Defined benefit obligation (DBO)

Management's estimate of the DBO is based on a number of underlying assumptions such as standard rates of inflation, mortality, discount rate and anticipation of future salary increases. Variation in these assumptions may significantly impact the DBO amount and the annual defined benefit expenses (Refer Note No-41).

vi. Useful lives of depreciable/amortizable assets

Management reviews its estimate of the useful lives of depreciable/amortizable assets at each reporting date, based on the expected utility of the assets. Uncertainties in these estimates relate to technical and economic obsolescence that may change the utilisation of assets.

vii. Fair value Measurements

Management applies valuation techniques to determine fair value of equity shares (where active market quotes are not available) and stock option. This involves developing estimates and assumptions around volatility, dividend yield which may affect the value of equity shares or stock options.

Estimates and judgements are continuously evaluated. They are based on historical experience and other factors including expectation of future events that may have a financial impact on the Company and that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

41 (b)(i) Defined benefits plans - Gratuity

The gratuity liability arises on retirement, withdrawal, resignation and death of an employee. The aforesaid liability is calculated on the basis of fifteen days salary (i.e. last drawn basic salary) for each completed year of service subject to vesting period of 5 years of service as per provisions of Payment of Gratuity Act 1972 as amended.”.

Policy for recognizing actuarial gains and losses:

Actuarial gains and losses of defined benefit plan arising from experience adjustments and effects of changes in actuarial assumptions are immediately recognized in other comprehensive income. Risks associated with the plan provisions are actuarial risks. These risks are investment risk, mortality risk and salary risk.

Investment risk

Plan assets comprise funds managed by the insurer i.e. Life Insurance Corporation of India ('LIC').

Mortality risk

The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the best estimate of the mortality of plan participants. A change in mortality rate will have a bearing on the plan's liability.

Salary risk

The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated with the assumption of salary increase rate of plan participants in future. Deviation in the rate of increase of salary in future for plan participants from the rate of increase in salary used to determine the present value of obligation will have a bearing on the plan's liability.

The Company has an established control framework with respect to the measurement of fair values. The finance and accounts team that has overall responsibility for overseeing all significant fair value measurements and reports directly to the board of directors. The team regularly reviews significant unobservable inputs and valuation adjustments. If third party information, such as broker quotes or pricing services, is used to measure fair values, then the team assesses the evidence obtained from the third parties to support the conclusion that these valuations meet the requirements of Ind AS, including the level in the fair value hierarchy in which the valuations should be classified. Significant valuation issues are reported to the Company's board of directors.

Fair values are categorized into different levels in a fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used in the valuation techniques as follows:

Level 1: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices)

Level 3: inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

There have been no transfers in either direction for the year ended 31 March 2025 and 31 March 2024 Measurement of fair values.

Valuation techniques and significant unobservable inputs.

Financial instruments measured at fair value

Type	Valuation technique	Significant Unobservable inputs	Inter relationship between significant unobservable inputs and fair value
Investments in quoted Equity shares measured at fair value through Other comprehensive income	The fair values of investment in Equity shares is determined using quoted price as at the balance sheet date.	Not applicable	Not applicable

Fair value of financial assets and liabilities measured at amortized cost

The carrying amounts of short-term trade and other receivables, trade payables, cash and cash equivalents and other bank balances are considered to be the same as their fair values, due to their short-term nature.

For other financial liabilities/ assets that are not measured at fair value, the carrying amounts are considered equal to their respective fair values.

II Financial Risk Management

The Company's principal financial liabilities comprise borrowings, lease liabilities, trade payables and other payables. The Company's principal financial assets include trade and other receivables, investments and cash and bank balances that it derives directly from its operations.

MOHINDRA FASTENERS LIMITEDNotes To Consolidated Financial Statements For The Year Ended 31st March 2025 (Contd.)

(All amounts are in Lakh of Indian Rupees, unless otherwise stated)

The Company has exposure to the following risks arising from financial instruments:

- credit risk;
- liquidity risk; and
- market risk"

This note presents information about the Company's exposure to each of the above risks, the Company's objectives, policies and processes for measuring and managing risk.

a) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss arising from counterparty failure to repay or service debt according to the contractual terms or obligations. Credit risk encompasses of both, the direct risk of default and the risk of deterioration of creditworthiness as well as concentration of risks. Credit risk is controlled by analysing credit limits and creditworthiness of customers on a continuous basis to whom the credit has been granted. The company is exposed to credit risk from its operating activities (primarily trade receivables) and from its financing activities, including, foreign exchange transactions and other financial instruments.

The Company enters into long term contracts with its regular customers thereby eliminating uncertainties also mitigates the risk exposure on high risk customers and avoids any such contracts with them. The outstanding customer receivables are regularly monitored and reviewed by the senior management periodically. At 31st March, 2025, the top 10 customers accounted for approximately 60% of all the receivables outstanding. The amounts at 31st March analyzed by the length of time past due, are:

Note : 51 Investment Property

Property which is held for long-term rental yields or for capital appreciation or both, and that is not occupied by the Company, is classified as investment property. Investment property is measured initially at its cost, including related transaction costs. Subsequent expenditure is capitalised to the asset's carrying amount only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. Repairs and maintenance costs are expensed when incurred.

Depreciation on investment property is provided on a pro rata basis on straight line method over the estimated useful lives. Useful life of assets, as assessed by the Management, corresponds to those prescribed by Schedule II- Part 'C' of the Companies Act, 2013.

(f) Satisfaction of performance obligations

The Company's revenue is derived from the single performance obligation to transfer primarily hi-tensile fasteners under arrangements in which the transfer of control of the products and the fulfillment of the Company's performance obligation occur at the same time. Revenue from the sale of goods is recognized when the Company has transferred control of the goods to the buyer and the buyer obtains the benefits from the goods, the potential cash flows and the amount of revenue (the transaction price) can be measured reliably, and it is probable that the Company will collect the consideration to which it is entitled to in exchange for the goods.

Whether the customer has obtained control over the asset depends on when the goods are made available to the carrier or the buyer takes possession of the goods, depending on the delivery terms. In case of the Company's operations, generally the criteria to recognize revenue has been met when its products are delivered to its customers or to a carrier who will transport the goods to its customers, this is the point in time when the Company has completed its performance obligations.

(g) Payment terms

The sale of goods is typically made under credit payment terms differing from customer to customer and ranges between 0-60 days.

(h) Variable considerations associated with such sales

Periodically, the Company enters into volume or other rebate programs where once a certain volume or other conditions are met, it refunds the customer some portion of the amounts previously billed or paid. For such arrangements, the Company only recognizes revenue for the amounts it ultimately expects to realise from the customer. The Company estimates the variable consideration for these programs using the most likely amount method or the expected value method, whichever approach best predicts the amount of the consideration based on the terms of the contract and available information and updates its estimates each reporting period.
